

The Center for Biblical Studies - Read the Bible in a Year Lent to Lent Bible Challenge 2015

By the Rev. Marek P. Zabriskie, Rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Fort Washington, PA, Founder of the Center for Biblical Studies and The Bible Challenge

The Book of Common Prayer (pages 264-265) offers this invitation to every worshipper as the penitential season of Lent begins:

“Dear People of God:

The first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord’s passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting.”

The person leading the service then extends this special invitation:

“I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s holy Word.”

Hence, Lent is an exceptional time to go further in the spiritual journey by committing to a daily spiritual practice that will strengthen your relationship with God, transform your life and help you to be more fully the person that God intends of you to be.

It is there a wonderful time to begin The Bible Challenge either as an individual or with members of your church or your diocese. Each year, entire parishes and dioceses throughout the Anglican Communion have started participating in the Read the Bible in a Year Lent-to-Lent Bible Challenge with the assistance of our simple reading plan.

The Center for Biblical Studies has designed this simple reading schedule to help those who commit as individuals or as members of a church, a church school or a diocese to read successfully through the entire Bible in a year’s time.

The CBS intentionally focuses on reading the entire Bible, reading the books of the Bible in sequence and ensuring that a psalm and a portion of the New Testament are read each day in order to provide strong spiritual daily content to sustain readers working through the entire Bible.

We encourage readers to read portions of the Bible Monday through Saturday and assume that on Sunday they will be in church hearing the Scriptures read aloud. The Bible is best understood in the context of a faith community and by persons who are committed to following the teachings of Jesus and obeying the Word of God in their daily life.

Merely hearing the Scriptures read aloud on Sunday, however, is not enough to know and to experience the living, life-transforming Word of God. We encourage you always to put yourself in the presence of God before you begin reading the Scriptures. Read with a desire to understand and follow the teachings of Scripture so that your life might be transformed by the Holy Spirit working within you as the Word of God is revealed to your heart, mind and soul. We wish you every blessing in your faithful daily Bible reading.

We offer this prayer written by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer in 1549 The Book of Common Prayer as you begin your spiritual journey and The Bible Challenge:

“Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.”

Congratulations!

You have finished and have done something truly memorable and spiritually rewarding. We hope that this has transformed your life in a special way. God will surely honor the significant effort that you have made.

Rather than rest upon your laurels, we strongly encourage you to begin reading the Bible again, this time moving more slowly and deliberately, but ensuring that each day you read a portion of the Scriptures. You may wish to read a different translation of the Bible this time so that you read passages, which are now more familiar to you, and see slight differences that will reveal deeper meanings and more truths to you. Please see our “Next Steps in the Bible Challenge” on the Center for Biblical Studies website for ideas about other Bible translations to read and ideas for how to build on your understanding of the Bible.

As always, we encourage you to put yourself in the presence of God before you read any portion of the Bible. If you chose to re-read the Bible and let daily Bible reading become a life-long spiritual practice for you, we recommend that you read the article on “Lectio Divina” on the Center for Biblical Studies website to help you discover a slow, meditative way of reading that Scriptures that can be life-transforming. Once again, congratulations on achieving a major spiritual goal in your life. You can build on the important spiritual work that you have done.

With congratulations for your achievement and prayers for your continued daily Bible reading,

The Rev. Marek P. Zabriskie

Rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Fort Washington, Pennsylvania
